Warships are nearly always loaded.
Aviation is not yet above the chance of accident.

Feminine fashion is doing its best to improve on nature.

Wrestling is not a popular sport, because it is lawful and humane.

The new comet has no tail and a tailless comet is a sorry spectacle.

"Paris has decreed that the corset must go." Yes, it will go where it usually is put.

A beauty expert says that happiness is the best cosmetic known, but will it remove freckles?

Somebody has invented an "aviation cocktail," but the aviation 5-cent cigar is slow in appearing.

New Jersey driver named Ham. Loads of eggs. Smashup. All that was lacking was a cup of coffee.

The young men who are trying to fly from coast to coast are having their ups and downs—mostly downs.

However Kimmel isn't the first man to come home in such condition that his own mother couldn't recognize him.

The Chinese admiral finds fault with American women's skirts, but he is mum on the subject of tight shoes.

Thomas A. Edison says the present day fashions in women's clothes hurt his eyes. Tom always was a sensible feller.

Thomas A. Edison says America is ahead of Germany in aviation. The undertakers of our fair land second the motion.

A German has invented an artificial sponge. This variety, however, will not expect you to buy smokes and drinks for it.

Five people have been poisoned by canned mushrooms. The only safe mushrooms, it appears, are those that are never picked.

A Western man killed himself because his wife asked him to wash the dishes. We wonder why he didn't put on his hat and "beat it."

It may take one man ninety years to count $1,000,000, but when a man has that much money he can afford to hire men to count it for him.

When New York imports chorus girls it gives them French of Spanish names. That's probably because most of them come from hated Chicago.

American husbands may be bored, as a fair Anglomaniac tells us, but they are not professional husbands, as a good many foreign noblemen are.

Paris is promising us a revival of the hoop skirt. With woman just emerging from the hobble, it is a case of jumping from one extreme to another.

A census of the birds is to be taken; so fast does fashion say that it will be necessary to count the ladies' hats if records are to be accurate.

Arithmetic is taught in some schools by means of baseball averages. Tom Edison suggests that geography be studied by means of moving pictures. All that remains is to teach reading and spelling with a phonograph.

A Toronto clerkman avers that kissing is a neglected art. We presume that he speaks of conditions in Canada. Young men of America are fully as brave as their forefathers.

One of our aviators claims to have encountered an air serpent coveting hither and yon in the atmosphere. And we had been led to believe that aviators were sober young men.

A Massachusetts parson has resigned his pulpit to become a coal dealer. Sometimes we think there is a bigger field for coal dealers than parsons.

A pure food authority says that a bottle of pop contains 1,000,000 microbes. Now it is understood why the fan in the bleachers sometimes manifests an uncontrollable longing to throw it at the umpire.

A Boston woman beauty doctor has discovered that the way to be beautiful is to make faces. Now the true inward meaning of Mother Nature in that strange feminine impulse is fully explained.

Judge Petit has ruled that Reno divorces are invalid in Illinois, but people who have them need not be expected to hurry into the courts for the purpose of having things righted. What do they care for a little old thing like a ruling?

A Kansas City girl stole $5,000 which she gave to the man she loved, and he spent it on another girl who "peached" on the one who did the stealing. It seems useless for a girl to steal $5,000 for two such people as the fellow and the other girl.

A Connecticut man has succeeded in making his cow drunk by feeding her sour apples. The scientific value of his experiment has not as yet been explained.

Ladies' muffs will, according to advance notices from the fashion emperors, be much larger during the coming winter than ever before. This being the case, it may be necessary for the young man who takes a girl out in a cab or an automobile to hire an extra vehicle for the purpose of transporting her muff.

A DRUGGIST'S FAVORITE KIDNEY REMEDY—CURED HIMSELF.

Fifteen years ago I had an attack of acute kidney trouble. I consulted a physician who gave me medicine which only relieved me for a time. After discontinuing his medicine my trouble returned as severe as before. Having heard of Swamp-Root I gave it a trial and can honestly state that three dollar bottles cured me, never having any sickness in fifteen years. I have sold Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root as a druggist for many years and can give the very best of recommendations at all times.

You are at liberty to use this statement any time you wish.

Respectfully,
W. C. SUMMERS,
1219 Central Ave., Kansas City, Kans.

On this 11th day of August, 1909, personally appeared before me, W. C. Summers, who subscribed to the within statement and made oath that the same is true in substance and in fact.

Oxen in Massachusetts.
J. D. Avery of Shelburne Falls is surely the king of oxen in this part of the country. At the Brattleboro fair recently he has had the most wonderful exhibit of oxen, and in all the tests of strength for pulling heavy boat-loads of stone his oxen have cleaned the decks. One of the secrets in these tests is the way the oxen are managed and driven. Mr. Avery does his own driving and is a master at the business. The other day again, as the day before, he cleared everything before him in the ox pulling ring by taking all three prizes in the free for all class and first and second in the 3,500 class.

The load drawn in the 3,500 class was about 9,100, while the veteran ox man made an exhibition pull of nine feet in the free for all class with a fancy pair of Devons with a load of 10,235, which is the biggest load drawn at Brattleboro since he pulled over 11,000 with his famous pair of Holsteins.—Hampshire Gazette.

The Very Worst.
Clement J. Driscoll, at a dinner in New York, told a number of amusing stories about his strenuous life as commissioner of weights and measures last year.

"A friend of mine," said Mr. Driscoll, "noticed one morning that his grocery looked very sad. 'What's the matter, old man?' my friend asked jokingly. 'The weights and measures man hasn't been dropping in on you, I hope?'"
"Yes, he has," snapped the grocer.
"But you don't really mean to say," exclaimed my friend, "that he caught you giving only fifteen ounces to the pound?"
"Worse than that," groaned the grocer. "I've been giving seventeen."

Salve to Conscience.
It was at a concert, where the removal of hats was not obligatory, still the woman with a conscience wished to be accommodating. She turned to the woman sitting beside her and said:

"Does my hat bother you?"
"No, in the least," said the other woman sweetly, so the woman with a conscience settled complacently back to listen to the music while persons on the back seats twisted their necks out of joint trying to see around her hat.

An Unbeliever.
"Sir," said the haughty American to his adhesive tailor, "I object to this horrid dunnage. I would have you know that my great-grandfather was one of the early settlers."

"And yet," sighed the anxious tradesman, "there are people who believe in heredity."—Argonaut.

Rivalry.
"Does your automobile go faster than your neighbor's?"
"No," replied Mr. Chuggins. "But my danger signal makes a much more disagreeable noise than his."

His Losses.
"What did you lose on that wrestling match?"
"About nine-tenths of my respect for the human race."

SHIFT
If Your Food Fails to Sustain You, Change.

One sort of diet may make a person despondent, depressed and blue and a change to the kind of food the body demands will change the whole thing. A young woman from Phila. says:

"For several years I kept in a run-down, miserable sort of condition, was depressed and apprehensive of trouble. I lost flesh in a distressing way and seemed in a perpetual sort of dreary nightmare. No one serious disease showed, but the 'all-over' sickness was enough."

"Finally, between the doctor and father, I was put on Grape-Nuts and cream, as it was decided I must have a nourishing food that the body could make use of."

"The wonderful change that came over me was not, like Jonah's gourd, the growth of a single night, yet it came with a rapidity that astonished me."

"During the first week I gained in weight, my spirits improved, and the world began to look brighter and more worth while."

"And this has continued steadily, till now, after the use of Grape-Nuts for only a few weeks, I am perfectly well, feel splendidly, take a lively interest in everything, and am a changed person in every way." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Read the little book, "The Poem to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a reason."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

STATE TROOPS TO STOP RACE WAR

CITY ATTORNEY OF COWETA, OKLA., KILLED AND TWO WHITES WOUNDED.

MUSKOGEE MILITIA THERE

Slayer Cut Down After Being Strung Up. Only to Be Shot to Death—Blacks Are Making Threats.

Coweta, Okla.—Company F, Oklahoma National Guard, arrived here and are patrolling the town in an effort to prevent a threatened race war, which started when a negro was mobbed.

Ed Suddeth, a negro, was shot to death by a mob of citizens, who had armed themselves, following a battle between blacks and whites, in which Suddeth killed J. D. Beavers, city attorney, and wounded Carmen Oliver and Steller Thompson, white men. Oliver and Thompson may die.

Suddeth was wounded and was then strung up to a water tank, but was cut down before he died and locked in a vacant building.

Race War Is Feared.
Deputy Sheriff Flowers attempted to take the slayer to Wagoner to jail. As Suddeth was being taken to an automobile a mob opened fire on him and riddled him with bullets. Probably fifty shots entered his body.

Large numbers of enraged negroes arrived from the surrounding country and a race war seems inevitable.

Oliver was taken to Muskogee on a passenger train and placed in the Baptist hospital, where doctors are probing for the bullet. He was shot through the abdomen.

White Girl Pushed Off Sidewalk.
The trouble started when a telephone operator named Swazer was walking with a young woman and Ed Guss, a negro, in passing, pushed the girl from the sidewalk into the mud. Swazer struck at the negro, and another white man, whose name is being kept secret, seized Guss and Swazer beat him with his fists.

Russ had been walking the streets with a long knife in his pocket, seeking the man who held him. City Marshal Hart ordered the negro to give up the knife and Russ shot at him. At that instant Ed Suddeth ran out of a house across the street and opened fire, instantly killing City Attorney Beavers, and wounding Oliver and Thompson, all of whom were passing at the time and had taken no part in the trouble.

Chicago—Judge Peter S. Grosscup of the United States circuit court forwarded his resignation to President Taft. Grosscup was appointed judge of the United States circuit court at Chicago in 1892.

Wife Slayer Is Convicted.
Bluff, Ark.—William T. Nichols was declared guilty of murder in the first degree by a jury which had been out 50 minutes. He will be the first white man in years sentenced to be hanged in Jefferson county.

Gems Jiggled From Hose.
San Francisco—A bag containing $3,500 in gems and $500 in currency was "jiggled" out of her stocking while she rode through Golden Gate park in a taxi, the police were told by Mrs. W. G. Logan of New York.

SKIN AFFECTIONS ARE OFTEN CONTAGIOUS

How to Prevent Them.

The skin and its millions of pores are open to every form of contagion, from the accidental cut, sore, scald or burn, or the appearance of boils, carbuncles or felons, to the more serious diseases of the skin. It is not necessary to more than suggest that every family and every one, carry ready for immediate use, the world's great standard skin remedy—Resinol Ointment. This ointment, indorsed and recommended by thousands of physicians, nurses and experts, remains the standard of standards. It is scientifically compounded from natural ingredients, each one, and all together, particularly adapted to the skin. This Time for a Friend.
"Tis a wise man," said Robert Edson, "who knows when to ask questions. The other night I was standing inside the railroad station when an Irish cab driver came up to me and asked me how soon the next train came in. I told him and he said thank you and went away. In about five minutes he came back with the same question. 'I told you not more than five minutes ago,' I said. 'I know it,' he answered cheerfully, 'but it's not a friend of mine outside that has to me th't wants to know this time. It's watch his horses and can't come in an' ask yez himself!'"—Youth's Magazine.

And So On.
"What is this domestic science?" inquired the engaged girl.
"It consists of making hash out of the left-over meat, and croquettes out of the left-over hash," explained her more experienced friend.

ALMOST CRAZY WITH ECZEMA
"I, the undersigned, cannot give enough praise to the Cuticura Remedies. I had been doctoring for at least a year for eczema on my foot. I had tried doctor after doctor all to no avail. When a young girl I sprained my ankle three different times, paying little or no attention to it, when five years ago a small spot showed upon my left ankle. I was worried and sent for a doctor. He said it was eczema. He drew a small bone from the ankle about the size of a match and about an inch long. The small hole grew to about the size of an apple, and the eczema spread to the knee. The doctors never could heal the hole in the ankle. The whole foot ran water all the time."

"My husband and my sons were up night and day watching me from one room to another in the hope of giving me some relief. I would sit for hours at a time in front of the fireplace hoping for daybreak. The pain was so intense I was almost crazy, in fact, I would lose my reason for hours at a time. One day a friend of mine dropped in to see me. No more had she glanced at my foot than she exclaimed: 'Mrs. Finnegan, why in the world don't you try the Cuticura Remedies? Being disgusted with the doctors and their medicines, and not being able to sleep at all, I decided to give the Cuticura Soap and Ointment a trial. After using them three days that night I slept as sound as a silver dollar for eight long hours. I awoke in the morning with but very little pain, in fact, I thought I was in heaven. After using the Cuticura Remedies for three months I was perfectly restored to health, thanks to the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I will be sixty-four years of age my next birthday, hale and hearty at present.' (Signed) Mrs. Julia Finnegan, 224 Hebert St., St. Louis, Mo., Mar. 7, 1911. Although Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere, a sample of each, with 32-page book, will be mailed free on application to "Cuticura," Dept. 12, K, Boston.

PASTOR RICHESON HELD AS POISONER

POLICE SAY HE BOUGHT CYANIDE WHICH KILLED MUSIC STUDENT IN BOSTON.

GIRL DIES IN BATH ROOM

Druggist Quoted as Saying Minister Wanted Drug to "Kill a Dog," and Asked That the Sale of It Be Kept a Secret.

Boston.—The Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson, pastor of the Baptist church in Cambridge, was arrested at the home of his fiancée, on a warrant charging him with first degree murder, in the case of Miss Avis Linnell, his alleged former fiancée, who died of cyanide poisoning at the Y. W. C. A. home in this city. A druggist, the police say, told them of selling cyanide of potassium to the minister to "kill a dog," and of being requested to keep the sale a secret.

When Richeson was arrested he protested that God knew of his innocence and that everything would come out all right, adding that he intended to face the ordeal as bravely as he could.

The warrant for Richeson was issued by Municipal Court Judge Murray after the arrest. It was arranged to bring the minister into court at once and continue his case until October 31.

The arrest was made shortly after daylight, after the police, at midnight, had surrounded the home in Brookline of Moses G. Edmunds, father of the pastor's intended bride, and demanded an interview with the minister. Deputy Superintendent Watts said that the police had substantiated information that the Rev. Mr. Richeson had bought cyanide of potassium at a drug store in Newton Center October 19.

Avis Linnell, 19 years old, whose home was at Hyannis, Mass., was found dead in the bathroom of the Young Women's Christian Association home in this city.

At first it was believed that she had committed suicide, but later developments showed that she had unknowingly taken cyanide of potassium, given or sent to her by some other person, which she used in the belief that it would remedy a physical condition which was causing her anxiety.

Miss Linnell had previously been a friend of Mr. Richeson, and it was understood at Hyannis that an engagement existed. Later, however, the clergyman became engaged to Miss Edmunds, an heiress.

Writers' Real Names.
Authors who manipulate their names to suit their fancies are not a small band. There's Thomas Henry Hall Caine. There was Gabriel Charles Dante Rossetti and Charles John Huffam Dickens. Only one book of reference, says the London Chronicle, gives the full name of Oscar Piggall O'Flaherty Wills Wilde, some of whose poems first appeared by the initials O. F. O'F. W. W. Lewis Melville is really Louis Benjamin, and very few people are aware that the bearer of the distinguished name Sir Sidney Lee was originally Solomon Lazarus Levi.

Is of Scotch Origin.
Ellen Key, who has written a number of books and has had much to do with molding public opinion in Sweden, is descended from a Scotch Highlander, Colonel McKee, who fought under Gustavus Adolphus. In 1880 her father lost all his money and Miss Key went to work as a teacher. She then gave lectures and has for 20 years been lecturer on the history of civilization at the Popular University of Stockholm.

Modern Pharmacy.
"We have a very fine course in pharmacy," says the president of the college to the father of the student who is entering.

"Well, we give special lectures on soap, stamps, cigars, perfumery, soda water, candy, city directories, telephone books and stationery."—Life.

Association of Ideas.
"You have a great many flies and mosquitoes," said the rather supercilious girl.
"Yep," replied Farmer Cartmossel. "I didn't like to mention it, but I've noticed every year that flies, mosquitoes and summer boarders all appears to be on hand at the same time."

When Friendship Counts.
The doors of the deformed man are always locked, and the key is on the outside. He may have treasures of charm inside, but they will never be revealed unless the person outside operates with him in unlocking the door. A friend becomes, to a much greater degree than with the ordinary man, the indispensable means of discovering one's own personality. One only exists, so to speak, with friends. It is easy to see how hopelessly such a sensitiveness incapacitates a man for business, professional or social life, where the hasty and superficial impression is everything, and disaster is the fate of the man who has not all the treasures of his personality in the front window where they can be readily inspected and appreciated.—From the September Atlantic.
